

Mafia rule book

Total characters included in the game are as follows.

God:

The most superior person of the game assigns role to every individuals and controls the city.

The God can change anyone's role in the game at any instant of the game .i.e., mafia can be made villager, silent mafia can be made cop. ANYTHING!

In case of tie in discussion, the ultimate decision is taken by the God. He can either eliminate everyone having tie or no one. The decision solely depends on the God.

And as thumb rule of the game says, “the God can do anything! “So every decision taken by the God is the last decision and applicable in any condition.

Mafia-can kill anyone

The person who is killed will be out of the next round unless healer heals him/her or godfather has sucked the power of mafia.

Silent mafia-can make anyone silent

Silent mafia can also make himself/herself silent too.

The person who is silenced won't be able to take part in the discussion.

If godfather has sucked the power of silent mafia then no one will be dead or silent in the next round.

Cop- can check anyone

If he/she is mafia then God will show thumbs up and vice versa.

If godfather has sucked the power of cop. The god won't help.

Healer - can heal anyone.

If healer heals the person which was killed by mafia then he/she come to life again.

The power goes in vain in case of godfather has already sucked healer's power.

Godfather- can suck anyone's power.

In case of the situation arises in the game when there is no mafia left, godfather himself/herself becomes mafia automatically.

Villager -has no power.

Winning condition:

If the number of mafia exceeds villagers, mafia wins.

If the number of mafia and villagers are same then also mafia wins.

If every mafia is eliminated from the game, then only villager wins.

How the game is played:

Team mafia-mafia and silent mafia

Team villager-villager, godfather, cop and healer

Group of 12 people, everyone is assigned role one by one secretly.

The city sleeps, the God asks following questions respectively.

Godfather wakes up-whose power do you wanna suck?

Mafia wakes up-whom do you wanna kill?

Silent mafia wakes up-whom do you wanna silence?

Cop wakes up-whom do you wanna check?

Healer wakes up-whom do you wanna heal?

The god then orders the whole city to wake up and announces whether anyone is dead or silenced.

The players then discuss among themselves of whom they think as mafia, anyone can bluff anything.

After that vote out is done and everyone votes to the person whom they think as mafia. The person with maximum votes gets one chance to defend himself/herself. Then again final vote out is done and the person with maximum votes is eliminated and the next round begins.
