

Rubik's Cube Competition

Registration fees: ₹100 per participant

DESCRIPTION AND RULES

Individuals competing against each other for the fastest time. You may have several rounds calculating results either by best of "x" number of rounds or average of "x" number of rounds. Number of rounds will be decided on the spot. For first round, participant will be given 5 minutes to solve the cube and then the time will be decreased according to the coordinator or judge. Rubik's cube will be provided.

In another competition, competitors will have to perform as many different types of patterns like checkerboard, staircase, cross, six spots, vertical stripes etc.

Your competition should be a fun experience. However, some general rules of conduct should be stated.

1. No items whatsoever are allowed on the competition table(s) including cell phones, pagers, or any other electronic equipment.
2. Use of notes or any form of reference material can be permitted if you want.
3. Competitors may sit or stand during the competition round(s).
4. Disqualification: The Competition Judge may disqualify a team and/or a single competitor or issue a warning for any of the following reasons:
  - Cheating.
  - Competitor fails to comply with competition rules or the rules of the venue
  - Competitor is disruptive and/or interferes with other competitors.
  - Any warning will result in a 5 second Competition penalty per incident.
  - In the event of any dispute, competitors must accept the final ruling of the Competition Judge.
5. The competition requires the use of 3x3x3 Rubik's Cube.
6. Cubes will be given to the competitors.
7. Cubes should not be damaged, marked, or otherwise altered. It is acceptable to allow a small marking on the center cube with the Rubik's logo, so a personal cube can be identified. By small, we mean a colored dot, other symbol or initials.

Prize Money: = 1800

1st prize: ₹ 1000

2nd prize: ₹ 500

2nd prize: ₹ 300